AUGUST WEDDINGS—In spite of the weather of August, which is not supposed to turn the young man's ancy to thoughts of love, this has been a rather busy month for Justice arker. On Monday night, he tied the eventh and eighth knots of the month. Then he began to institute an inquiry as to the reason why people desired to get married in August. The ex-planation was offered that the mar-riage is made a condition precedent, sometimes, to a vacation, which the parties decide to call a honeymoon trip. The couples united by him on Monday night were Reginald Brimhall and Ione L. Stallings of Mesa, and David and Julia Rosales of this city.
